ATTRACTIVE ENTERTAINMENTS

Many Have Been Given During Past Week for Charitable Purposes.

One of the largest crowds ever assembled in any hall in Fulton was present Friday night at an ice cream social and entertainment at Nelson's Hall. The fair was given under the auspices of the Virginia Council, No. 2, Daughters of Liberty. Vocal and instrumental music were in abundance, and in addition many humorous speeches were made which were much enjoyed and heartily applauded.

The pulpit of the Fulton Baptist Church will be occupied at both services to-day by the pastor, the Rev. Dayle Hepburn.

Regular services will be conducted at the Apostolic Church to-day, by the pastor, the Rev. John W. Daugherty. At the morning service at 10 o'clock the subject will be "Shall we meet beyond the river, or on this side?" At the evening service at 8 o'clock, the subject of Mr. Daugherty's discourse will be "Why Heaven shall be burned up?"

The pulpit of the Weddell-Memorial Episcopal Chapel will be occupied at the morning service by the pastor, the Rev. Guy Christian. At the evening service the Rev. R. A. Goodwin, pastor of St. John's Episcopal Church will preach, at which time communion will be administered.
